D. A. R. Dance Planned

For Tomorrow Night

Mrs. Bertrand T. Denis and Mrs. Frank Morrison will entertain the Abigail Hartman Rice Chapter of the D. A. R. tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Morrison, on Decatur street, when an interesting program will be given, followed by dancing.

Mrs. A. L. Goodacre entertained the members of Lincoln Circle, No. 1, D. A. R., at a shower Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Rosemary C. Lucas, daughter of Mrs. Rosetta Lucas of Crittenden street, who will be married Monday to Mr. George E. Farrow of St. Louis, Mo. The ceremony will take place at St. Patrick's Church at 10 a.m. and will be followed by a nuptial mass.

Mrs. Jacob John Locher, national chairman of press for the League of American Pen Women, will go to New York today to attend the annual roof garden party, June 5, of the New York Federation of Women's Clubs. She will be the guest of Mrs. Lyman Otis, first vice president and chairman of the motion picture review committee for the general federation. Mrs. Locher will also attend the installation of officers of the New York branch of the League of American Pen Women.

Mississippi night will be the feature of the Robert E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., meeting tomorrow. A musical program by Washington artists will precede the address by Representative James William Collier and an informal reception and dance will follow. Mississippi night will be devoted to the guests of the chapter. The chapter will be at the Confederate Home, on Vermont avenue, at 9 o'clock.

Los Angeles Home

Bought by McAdoo

The former Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo, who went recently to Los Angeles, Calif., to make their permanent residence, have purchased one of the city's most attractive homes and established themselves there within the past week.

The house, formerly the property of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Gustavus Hunt, is located at No. 5 Berkeley square, an exclusive residence section, famed for its beauty and the distinction of its residents. English in type and constructed of combined brick and plaster, the dwelling is flanked by broad verandas looking out over extensive and well kept grounds, and is ideal for elaborate entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. McAdoo, it is understood, will make it the center of much social gaiety.

By reason of their long visit in Los Angeles last summer, when they occupied the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laurence Doheny, their acquaintance has widened far beyond that of the few Los Angeles friends acquired in Washington, D. C., in the course of the Wilson administration, and they are already taking a decidedly active part in the season's social diversions. Mrs. Edward Elliott of Beverly Hills, a fashionable suburb of Los Angeles, it may be remembered, is a sister of the first Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, hence an aunt of Mrs. McAdoo.

On the eve of the removal of Mr. and Mrs. McAdoo from the Hotel Huntington, Pasadena, to their new dwelling, on Berkeley square, the house was thrown open for a garden tea. Mrs. Hunt entertaining for her successor at the home which she has graced so long.

Her personal attractiveness, enhanced by a mood of orchid-crepe worn with a rose-trimmed cream leghorn hat, Mrs. McAdoo was a charming figure, her costume harmonizing delightfully with that of her hostess, who wore a model of lavender with touches of brighter color in the skirt. Mrs. Hunt, formerly Miss Miriam Eskridge, belongs to the old Virginia family of this name, which claims George Eskridge, for whom George Washington was named.

Mrs. Edward Laurence Doheny, named as a member of the receiving party, was unable to attend owing to her sudden departure with Mr. Doheny for New York. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Hunt entertained thirty guests at dinner complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. McAdoo.

College Women Plan

Informal Tea Series

The College Women's Club will confine its summer activities to informal teas in the garden of the club, at 1822 I street northwest, on Monday afternoons during June from 4 to 6 o'clock.

The new officers will be hostesses at the first tea on June 5. At the second tea, on June 12, the hostesses will be the club members who are graduates of the Washington College of Law, Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey and Miss Emma Gillet. The guests of honor will be the woman members of the graduating class of the Washington College of Law, Miss Sara Grogan, Miss Annabel Matthews and Mrs. Marie S. Ruth will serve tea.

At the next tea, June 19, the George Washington University Club members will be hostesses and the woman members of the graduating class of George Washington University will be the guests of honor.

YOUR

COMBINGS

Will make this beautiful two-piece Patented Stainless Steel, which is absolutely without cords or stems. In our patented process we thoroughly steam and root all combings, keeping the hair from matting. Shorter hair can be made into our patented hair loop transformation. No lace, net or wire used.

Permanent Waving

(A Steaming Process) Bathing, salt air or shampooing will not mar the beauty of the wave or ruin its delight in its possession. My improved process eliminates all heat from the scalp—burns or blisters impossible.

Card Parties Announced

In Aid of Memorial

Mrs. Frederick T. F. Johnson, district regent of the Mary Washington Chapter of the D. A. R., will give a card party for the benefit of the Mary Washington Memorial Victory building. This room will be dedicated to music as a tribute to the Victory Mothers of America.

Mrs. Alfred Pembroke Thom and Mrs. Leland Stanford Connors are extending their efforts toward interesting women in trying to raise the money to complete the room, and a number of card parties are being planned to aid the memorial.

Miss Fritz has loaned the ballroom at the Hadleigh for a card party on June 8, and tickets may be secured from Mrs. Thom. Miss Annette Ashford is chairman of the young ladies committee which is assisting the ladies on the entertainment committee.

Reception to Honor 94th

Birthday Anniversary

Dr. Laura S. Brennon gave a reception Friday evening in honor of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Longfellow Stewart, in celebration of the latter's ninety-fourth birthday anniversary. The guests, who numbered about fifty, included Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Thomas and Mrs. R. S. Thomas. Mrs. Stewart, who was born in Wiscasset, Me., has lived in Washington for several years. She is a cousin of the late poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, and is a member of the Political Study Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend

Hosts at Tea at Home

Mr. and Mrs. Edith Lawrence Townsend gave a tea Thursday afternoon, following the christening of their daughter, Margaret Graham, in their home on 21st street. A small company of relatives from Philadelphia and Washington attended the tea, and Mr. and Mrs. Townsend's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, were the godfather and godmother. Mr. David Edward Graham, Jr., of New York was also her godfather.
